

Section III: Prepositions*Preposition (A.B)

A preposition is a word or group of words that combine with a noun or pronoun to form a phrase that usually acts as an adverb, adjective, or noun. "With" in the sentence: "the house with the red door" is a preposition.

OR

A preposition is a word placed before a noun or a pronoun to show in what selection the person or thing indicated by it stands in regard to something else:

1. He is fond of tea.
2. He is ashamed of his behavior.
3. He was angry with me.
4. She was absent from the class.
5. Let us hope for the best.
