Section III: Paraphrasing

Stanza # 1 (U.B)

'Tis a lesson you should heed. ... Try again.

Paraphrase:

These lines have been taken from the poem 'Try again' by 'W.E. Hickson'. The central idea in this stanza is to try again and again. 'Trying things again and again is a lesson that everyone should learn. The poet says that if you don't become successful in your first attempt, you should try again. You should get up with courage. If you show consistency, you should not have fear of failure. So, try again.

Stanza # 2(U.B)

Once or twice though you should fail ..... Try again. Paraphrase:

These lines have been taken from the poem 'Try again' by 'W.E. Hickson'. The central idea in this stanza is not to get fearful of the failure. 'Trying things again and again is a lesson that everyone should learn. The poet says that if you don't become successful or if you fail one or more times, you should not give up. It is not disgraceful if we are trying again and again. So the lesson is to try again. And if you don't win the race, you should not worry. Rather try again.

Stanza # 3(U.B)

If you find your task is hard...... Try again. Paraphrase:

These lines have been taken from the poem 'Try again' by 'W.E. Hickson'. The central idea in this stanza is to try with patience and consistency. 'Trying things again and again is a lesson that everyone should learn. The poet says that if you don't become successful or if you feel your task is too hard, try it again. Time will bring you reward of trying again and again in the form of success. If others can do something, it means you can also do. All you require is patience and the rule of 'trying again.'

Reading Comprehension (U.B)

A. Answer the following questions. (U.B)

1. What is the lesson taught in the first stanza?

Ans: The lesson taught in the first stanza is that of determination. It teaches us that our first failure should not make us disappointed. We should try again steadily and daringly to succeed.

2. What can we learn from failure? (GRW-2015 G-I)(MTN 2017G-II)(FSD 2017G-II)

Ans: Failure urges us to take more daring and courageous steps to get success. Our failure teaches us how to overcome our weaknesses and shortcomings.

How is failure not a disgrace? (LHR-2016 G-II)(DGK 2017G-I)(RWP 2017G-I)
 Ans: Failure is not a disgrace because it paves the way to success and inspires to do more work. It encourages us to work hard and try again.

4. How many times should we try and why?

6.

- Ans: We should keep on trying until we succeed. It is not disgraceful if we are trying again and again.
- 5. What should we do if we find our task hard?
- Ans: It we find our task hard, we should not be disappointed. We should not give up our hope and keep on trying till we are able to fulfil our goal.

Give an example of struggle from your life.

Ans. I, once could not pass the annual examination because I was ill and could not perform well. Later on, I worked hard and got an excellent position in the school.

Try Again (Poem)

Section VII: Writing Skills

A. Explain the main idea of the poem. (U.B)

The main idea of the poem is to work hard with solid resolution until you succeed. Always try to solve the problem with more effort and keep it in view that the rule of "Trying Again" is very useful. If a person tries hard, he will reach his goal. Success needs patience.

B. Paraphrase the stanzas of the poem.(U.B)

Refer back to Section III: Paraphrasing.

C. Write a summary of the poem "Try Again". (K.B)

(GRW 2014 G-II) (GRW 2015 G- I) (LHR 2017 G-II) (SWL 2017 G-I) (MTN 2017 G-II) (FSD 2017 G-I, II) (SGD 2017 G-I)

Summary

The short and beautiful poem 'Try Again' by W.E Hickson, presents an important universal message to the readers. In this poem, the poet says that little steady steps secure superb success. Continuous struggle and untiring efforts are the requirements for the accomplishment of the ultimate targets and ambitions. Failure is a good lesson for those who want to learn how to succeed in life.

The message of the poem is to 'try again". We should always keep this message in mind. If due to some certain adverse circumstances, we fail in our first attempt, we should not give up our efforts. We must show that we are daring and courageous to bear the loss. We should take firm and determined steps with staunch resolution for accomplishment of the set targets. We should realize that working more for the achievement of the targets is a graceful and praiseworthy act which should be appreciated and encouraged. It is not a shameful act. After all, untiring continuous efforts will yield sweet fruit. Thus, we should always consider the lesson 'Try Again' for the attainment of the ultimate destination.

If in the first effort you do not get success, put more effort with considerable force. One day, you will get success and will enjoy the fruits of your labour. You must know that if all people can do their jobs, you can also do yours. The only considerable thing is that you should never get disappointed. Continuous effort is the only way to be successful.

B. Write a paragraph on "Hard work is the key to success". (100-150 words) (K.B)

History tells us that all great men and women worked hard to achieve success. By hard work, both men and country progress. People have succeeded in their careers through hard work. A student cannot get good grades without working hard. If we look at different countries, seventy years ago, Japan, Korea, Brazil and Malaysia were under developed countries. Today, they are a few of the most successful countries only due to the hard work of their leaders which motivated their people. Lives of great men and women like Quaid e Azam Mohammed Ali Jinnah (Founder of Pakistan), Dr. Abdul Qadeer Khan (Father of Pakistan's Nuclear Program), Major Raja Aziz Bhatti Shaheed (Hero of 1965 war), Muniba Mazari (physically handicapped female activist), and Samina Baig (first Pakistani female who conquered Mount Everest) tells us that they worked very hard with commitment to achieve their goals. We should also work hard to accomplish success.
