

Q.6 Why do the children forget all about their problems after eating the fruit?

Ans. The children forget all about their problems after eating the fruit because they are innocent and unaware of the threats of war and misery.

بچے پھلوں کو کھانے کے بعد تمام باتوں کو بھول جاتے ہیں کیونکہ وہ معصوم ہیں اور جنگ اور دکھ کے خدشات سے بے خبر ہیں۔

Text Book Exercise

1. Choose the correct answer.

i. Which fruit has not been mentioned in the poem?

- (a) mango b) melon c) guava d) mandarin

ii. The fruit resembled the _____.

- a) vegetables b) cannon balls c) bullets d) biscuits

iii. It was a _____ street.

- a) dark b) bright c) airy d) blind

iv. The children were

- a) pale b) dark c) white d) yellow

2. Mark the statements true / false.

- i. No fruit has been mentioned in the poem. False
ii. The children did not want to buy the fruit. False
iii. The children were holding coins in their hands. True
iv. They ate the fruit with relish. True

3. Add two more rhyming words to each of the words given below.

- i. falls, _____, _____ (balls, walls)
ii. spend, _____, _____ (send, mend)
iii. skin, _____, _____ (thin, spin)
iv. forget, _____, _____ (beget, reject)

4. Write down the missing words in each verse.

i. Wicks balance flame, a dark dew

- a) falls b) calls c) moves d) comes

ii. Pyramid-piled like cannon

- a) bullets b) balls c) guns d) spears

iii. The sun in a pitted

- a) skin b) rim c) arm d) leg

iv. The dark street I am standing

- a) out b) in c) into d) on