

Text Book Exercise Solved

OBJECTIVE

1. Choose the correct answers:
  - i. What was the woman carrying?
    - a) a rod                      b) a bag                      c) a hammer                      d) a large purse
  - ii. From where was she coming?
    - a) hotel                      b) beauty shop                      c) office                      d) college
  - iii. What had happened to her?
    - a) a boy made a request for help                      b) a boy tried to help her
    - c) a boy begged ten dollars                      d) a boy tried to snatch her purse
  - iv. The boy washed his face on the direction of
    - a) a police officer                      b) his father                      c) the woman                      d) his uncle
  - v. The boy was in his
    - a) teens                      b) twenties                      c) jeans                      d) thirties
  - vi. What was the name of the woman?
    - a) Luella                      b) Bates
    - c) Washington Jones                      d) Luella Bates Washington Jones
  - vii. The boy was dragged into a
    - a) living room                      b) kitchenette-furnished room
    - c) hall                      d) dining room
  - viii. What did she suggest to the boy to look presentable?
    - a) to wash his face                      b) to dress properly
    - c) to polish the shoes                      d) to comb his hair
  - ix. The woman cooked the food and asked the boy
    - a) to serve                      b) to help                      c) to set the table                      d) to eat
  - x. What did the boy want to say to the woman?
    - a) thank you, M'am                      b) thankful to you
    - c) grateful to you                      d) something, other than, "Thank you, m'am"

2. Mark the statements true or false

Mark درست یا غلط Statements کیجیے۔

- i. A large woman was carrying a large purse containing hammer and nails.
- ii. The boy offered his help to carry the purse.
- iii. The woman firmly gripped the boy by his shirt front.
- iv. The woman dragged the boy to her home.

False

False

True

True

v.	She asked the boy to bring some food from the store.	False
vi.	The boy was punished by the other members of the house.	False
vii.	The boy stole the pocket-book to buy some food.	False
viii.	The boy was afraid of going to jail.	True
ix.	The boy did not trust the woman not to trust him.	True
x.	The woman advised the boy not to make the mistake of latching onto her pocket-book.	True

3. Answer the following questions (in one to three sentences)

Ans: Please go to Text Exercise Questions and answers at the start.

4. Answers the following questions in 100-150 words.

مندرجہ ذیل سوالات کے جوابات 100-150 الفاظ میں لکھیے۔

(i) Write the incident in your own words.

اس واقعہ کو ایک سوالفاظ میں تحریر کیجیے۔

Ans: The story is about a teenaged boy who tried to snatch the purse of a bulky woman in the street. He couldn't succeed in his attempt and fell on the ground. She kicked him and pushed him heavily. He was a lean boy who could not resist against her. She took him to her house in order to teach him the importance of good manners. She asked him to wash his face first. Then she gave him a piece of cake and ten dollars to buy a pair of sued shoes. She taught him that the shoes got by devilish means would burn his feet. There is a moral for all of us. We should work hard if we want to get anything. We also learn that the act of snatching is not only punishable but also shameful.

(ii) What was the effect of the behaviour of the woman on the boy?

لڑکے کے ساتھ خاتون کے رویہ کا کیا اثر ہوا؟

Ans: The behaviour of the woman with the boy was very strict in the beginning but is was necessary to teach him. She took him to her house and decided to teach him the importance of good manners. She also wanted to teach him not to repeat any such action which would be shameful. The boy was impressed by her good behaviour. He did not try to run away from her house only because of avoiding her mistrust. He liked the lady and even asked her for work as a houseboy. In the end, he wanted to say other than 'Thank you M'am'. But she did not give him any opportunity and shut the door. The boy learnt by that experience that 'we should work hard instead of snatching things if we want to get any thing'. It will surely save us from the disgrace and humiliation of any wrong treatment.

(iii) Why did she treat the boy nicely in her home after punishing him in the street?

گلی میں سزا دینے کے بعد اپنے گھر پر اس نے لڑکے کے ساتھ اچھا سلوک کیوں کیا؟

Ans: Mrs. Luella Bates Washington Jones was a nice lady. Once she had punished the boy in the street. She decided to teach him the difference between right and wrong. The boy was quite young and seemed to be a needy one. She took him as her son and asked him to wash his face first. She inquired about the reason of snatching her purse. She taught him that the things get through by wrong methods, can be devilish. The boy was young enough to understand what she taught. She also gave him a piece of cake and ten dollars to buy a pair of suede shoes. Hence, she taught him the importance of good manners. Kings can also be our slave if we have kind hearted treatment. The boy also learnt what she taught her.

5. Use the correct form of the verbs given in brackets.

Verbs کی درست فارم استعمال کیجیے۔

Incorrect	Correct
i. She (carry) the purse slung across her shoulder.	She carried the purse slung across her shoulder.
ii. The boy (fall) on his back on the sidewalk.	The boy fell on his back on the sidewalk.
iii. Some people (turn) to look.	Some people turned to look.
iv. She (drag) the boy inside, down a hall.	She dragged the boy inside, down a hall.
v. Mrs. Jones (get) up and went behind the screen.	Mrs. Jones got up and went behind the screen.
vi. The boy (take) care to sit on the far side of the room.	The boy took care to sit on the far side of the room.
vii. She (make) the cocoa, and set the table.	She made the cocoa, and set the table.
viii. A hotel beauty shop (stay) open late.	A hotel beauty shop stayed open late.
ix. She (lead) him down the hall to the front door.	She led him down the hall to the front door.
x. The boy (want) to say something.	The boy wanted to say something.

6. Punctuate the following lines.

مندرجہ ذیل سطروں میں اوقاف لگائیے۔

Unpunctuated	Punctuated
well you didnt have to snatch my pocketbook to get some suede shoes said mrs. luella bates Washington Jones you could have asked me.	"Well, you didn't have to snatch my pocket-book to get some suede shoes", said Mrs. Luella Bates Washington Jones. "You could have asked me."

7. Use the following prepositions in your own sentences.

In	He is in trouble these days.
Across	I saw him across the road.
Off	They set off on a journey.
Up	He got up early in the morning.
around	They built a wall around their house.

